VOL. 23. CHICAGO, MONDAY, DECEMBER 27, 1869. NUMBER 180.

FOREIGN.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.

GARIBALDI GOSSIPS.

The last thirteen prisoners of the Spanish fleet are now lying off Staten Island, ready to go to sea. They are probably the bearers of dispatches to Isabella Catolina. And will probably land at Malaga.

CONSISTORY SECRET.

The correspondent of the Sun says that Gavazzi has completed the recent story of imposition on account of a box, concealed by Cornelius Wendell, who has been waiting to tell the story for about two years. Keller says Wendell holds a good deal of it, as he received more than $50,000, and only accounted for about $2,000 of it. Keller says Wendell has been deeply interested in the bullpens now protected by the statute of limitations, the whole story will come out. The Sun says that Keller is in Sing Sing.

SAILED.

The steamship Europa, from New York, arrived yesterday morning, on her way to Hamburg.

QUEENSTOWN, Dec. 26.

The Steamships Nevada, from Boston, and City of Antwerp, from New York, arrived.

FOREIGN.

ARREST OF SONS OF THE LATE GARIBALDI.

The National Journal says the arrest has caused great excitement here. All classes feel sure the arrest was ordered by the Spanish Government for having declared a republican and socialistic ardent.

CHANGE OF MINISTRY.

It is now asserted that the Ministry will resign to-morrow. The city is full of rumors as to the names of successors, but they cannot be relied on any further than as indicating the drift of public opinion.

The French journals have articles commenting on the fact that the Papal Government has published a "Catechism" containing almost every sin.

ASSASSIN.

THE DALMATIAN REBELS STRENGTHENED.

Advices have been received here stating that the Dalmatian rebels have lost even their weak and surrounded.

SPAIN.

NO RECONCILIATION.

MADRID, Dec. 26.

La Correspondencia formally denies the report of reconciliation of the ex-Queen Isabella and the Duke of Montpensier.

Central and South America.

SAILED.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.

The steamer Arizona brings Panama dates to the 17th instant. It is reported that Peru has sold the Chincha Islands for $3,000,000. Chevalier, the Nicaragua Government agent, has returned to Central America, and will supply arms to the revolutionists in the surrounding States. The object is intended to free Upon Spanish dominion in the Cuban interest.

HOSPITAL.

An attempt was made to remove under Colonel Hawkins, but the plan was opposed.

A fire at Saginaw, Chili, destroyed most of the principal business of the place. Loss heavy.

Several new cases of yellow fever are reported at Rio Janeiro, but are officially denied. The churches daily in the common alluded favorably to the proposed Darien Canal.

UTE INDIANS.

Sentiment of their Agents and Interpreters.

St. Louis, Dec. 26.—Governor T. C. Fenton, Chief Agent Head, Interpreter Antoine Leroux, and Agent Dodge, of the Ute Indians, left here to-day for their reservation. They state, if it be true that the Indians have killed any whites, it is the result of the encroachments of the whites upon their reservation. They say the Indians have been driven from their hunting grounds by the whites, and have been compelled to live on the reservation, but would have gone for acquittal if necessary.

Chicago & Rock River Railroad. Historical Importance of Lockport. Its Enlargement.

Correspondence of The Chicago Tribune.

Lockport, Dec. 25.

The local voters of this thriving village and township voted on Saturday, the 11th inst., on the question of a subscription of $100,000 to the stock of the Chicago & Rock River Railroad, and the result of the election was 437 for, and 1 against, the proposition.

The importance of this point, which, by the Rock River, opposite to Sterling, on the Illinois Central Railroad, is generally known. It is also the terminus of the Illinois & Michigan Canal, and the junction of the Chicago & Rock River Railroad, which is to cross it at once. Upon Japanese ... the Orient as ... Chicago ...
